Information on this Web Site does not constitute a replacement for professional advice otherwise available (I.E.) Medical, Health, Meditations, Mental Health, Tax, Products, Programs or Services and et cetera, or any combination of any of these or like topics. We suggest you read and utilize the HON Foundation Web Site to learn how to properly access Medical related information on the World Wide Web, at <http://www.hon.ch/home.html>.

If you are unfamiliar with proper use of and gathering information via the Internet, we suggest you seek advice from a professional, reputable teachers available in your community. Sticking to Web Sites with dot gov (.gov) and dot edu (.edu) extensions will increase your chances of getting "real" information via the Internet, but in no way does that tactic guarantee success. Even experienced Internet Users use information on the Internet with caution. For examples see the "Quack Watch" Web Site Web Site Evaluation Index at <http://www.quackwatch.org/12Web/webindex.html>

GSA Privacy Statement:

We collect a limited amount of Passive and Active information, nothing out of the ordinary.

This Web site (<http://orgs.unt.edu/gsa/> - or wherever the UNT GSA Web Site resides) uses browser detection to determine the browser type and browser version of site visitors. This information is used only in its aggregate form, to help us further refine our web site design. The remote host name is collected from each site visitor, and is used only to provide statistical data, specifically, the percentage of "hits" from the UNT domain vs. the percentage of "hits" from outside the UNT domain for this Web site. The pages accessed by each visitor are recorded and preserved in an aggregate form to provide us with information about the relative usage of the pages in our Web site. The web page that referred the site visitor to this UNT Web site is also recorded, and used to improve overall site navigation.

E-Mail messages sent to the E-Mail contact for this Web site will be answered by that account holder or forwarded to another individual at UNT to be answered. E-Mail messages sent to the E-Mail contact for this Web site and copies of replies sent by this E-Mail contact may be kept and reviewed to help ensure the relevance of information presented in this Web site and the usefulness of the replies from the E-Mail contact.

Examples of passive information include:

browser detection: browser type and browser version remote host name: the DNS entry for the computer accessing the web site cookies: hidden identifiers used to store data during a visit, and cumulatively over time

Examples of active information include:

name of the site visitor E-Mail address of the site visitor comments or answers to questions provided by the site visitor.

Regarding Medical information: This site does not provide medical information nor solicit or share any private patient or medical related information with anyone. If such information is sent to us, we reject it and have no use for it.

Regarding Ownership of this Web Site: The Gerontology Student Association, the GSA, of the University of North Texas, UNT, and its elected officers is/are solely responsible for content. The expenses, if any, of producing this Web Site are paid by GSA member dues, and grant(s), underwriting, from The Center for Studies in Aging in the Department of Aging of the Applied Gerontology Program at the University of North Texas at Denton, Texas. The GSA is the Alpha Epsilon Chapter of the Sigma Phi Omega National honor society.

Sigma Phi Omega is the National Honor Society formed in 1980 to recognize the excellence of those who study gerontology and aging as well as of the professional personnel in aging services. SPO seeks to promote scholarship, professionalism, friendship, and services to older persons, and to recognize exemplary attainment in gerontology and aging studies and related fields.

We do not solicit or accept funds from entities outside our membership or the University of North Texas. We do not advertise or accept advertising from any for profit entity. We do post career information about jobs in the field of Gerontology for use by anyone, especially our members. We do not endorse any one company or product, nor do we intend to. Our purpose is to strive for professionalism, provide information, and facilitate academic and social unity between students, faculty and the Aging Network. The friendships developed through these activities will deepen the concern for and understanding of our duty of care for older people.

No advertisements are accepted or solicited.

We do our best to follow the HON Guidelines.

<http://www.hon.ch/HONcode/Guidelines/guidelines.html>.

HON, <http://www.hon.ch/home.html>, is the Health on the Net foundation.

The HON Code of Conduct (HONcode) for medical and health Web sites, is "one of most respected not-for-profit portals to medical information on the Internet."

While health information is an integral part of Gerontology, we do not intend to offer medical advice, nor should you ever follow any without contacting your medical professional, doctor, nurse, etc..
